2015 Precious Metals Investment Symposium

8th Annual Precious Metals Investment Symposium

The 2015 Precious Metals Investment Symposium is set to continue as the largest and most comprehensive precious metals investment event in Australia.

As the world is currently suffering from financial turmoil and uncertainty, there is still good news out there for investors. Precious metal investments and mining stocks can provide a safe alternative now and into the near future.

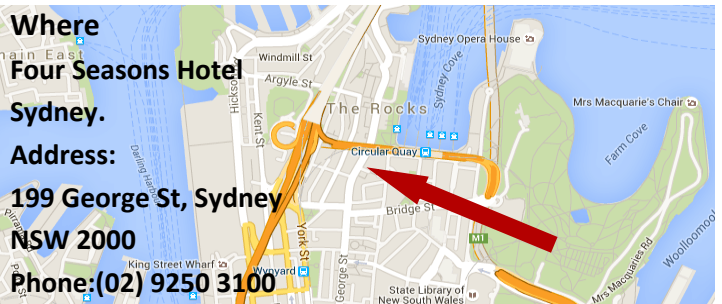

It's because of this that the 2015 Precious Metals Investment Symposium's theme is 'Back To The Asset of the Future'.

It's the aim to turn people's attention to an asset class that has gone practically unchanged for over 5000 years while still maintaining its store of value.

The 2015 Precious Metals Investment Symposium will play host to a world-class lineup of keynotes who will be sharing their insights into current market conditions, trends, and what to do about it. In addition the exhibition component of PMIS 2015 will showcase an incredible collection of presentations, exhibitions and investment options from every aspect of the precious metals investment industry, from mining explorers and producers to bullion companies and other investment vehicles.

When: Monday 26th to Tuesday 27th of October 2015
